

15 July 2003

COURSE TITLE: 40-HOUR CONSTRUCTION HAZARD AWARENESS TRAINING

DATE/TIME: 6 – 10 October 2003 / 0730-1530

NOMINATION DEADLINE: 15 September 2003

COST: None

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: HRSC PACIFIC Training Department
Telephone: (808) 671-1643, FAX (808) 677-1206
Registrar: Charlene Murata, Ext. 209
Coordinator: Susan Nishimura

DESCRIPTION: This course provides ROICCs, Construction Engineers and Inspectors, Contract Personnel involved with construction contracts, and other military/civilian personnel assigned responsibility for conducting or overseeing OSH efforts at Navy Construction sites, with the training to identify and interpret EM 385-1-1, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers Safety and Health Requirements. Students will learn how to apply these requirements to a construction site and ensure the site is free from safety and health hazards. The course content includes program management; sanitation, medical and First Aid requirements; temporary facilities; personal protective equipment; hazardous substances; lighting; fire protection and prevention; welding and cutting; electrical; lockout/tagout; hand and power tools; material handling, storage and disposal; rigging; machinery and mechanized equipment; motor vehicles; safe accesses and fall protection; work platforms; demolition; floor and wall holes and openings; trenching and excavation; concrete and masonry construction; steel erection; hazardous waste operations; contract diving operations; and tree maintenance and removal. Students must bring the following items to the class: 1) a copy of EM 385-1-1; 2) a 2 inch minimum 3-ring binder; 3) 1-index sheet set, alphabetical (A-z); 4) hi-liter; and 5) pen/pencil, as desire. Students must also have: 1) safety toe shoes; 2) safety glasses; 3) hearing protection (disposable ear plugs); 4) hard hat; 5) long pants; 6) shirt with sleeves; and 7) a reflective vest available for use on the field trip.

ELIGIBILITY: All personnel with assigned responsibilities for ensuring safety and health on construction sites on military bases. Class size is limited to 25 personnel. Priority will be given to local PACDIV/ROICC personnel. All others will be on a space available basis.

TRAINING SITE: Human Resources Service Center, Pacific, Training Center, 94-810 Moloalo Street, Second Floor, Waipahu HI (Insert in DD Form 1556, Block 19c)

VENDOR: Pacific Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command (Insert in DD Form 1556 Block 19a)

REGISTRATION/NOMINATION: HRSC PACIFIC REGISTRAR, Training Department, Code 30, 94-810 Moloalo Street, Waipahu HI 96797 (Yellow vendor copies 3, 4, and 5 of approved DD Form 1556 must reach the Registrar by nomination deadline.)

Confirmation letters will be sent by e-mail. Please provide Point of Contact's name, phone number and e-mail address. (Insert in DD Form 1556, Block 18)

SPONSOR: Human Resources Service Center, Pacific

(HRSC PACIFIC USE ONLY: SAID 58200-782R, UIC 62742)

SEE COVER PAGE FOR MORE INFORMATION